13 SEER

Save Space, Save Money[†], Help the Environment

These small attractive units offer exceptional heating and cooling performance all year round. With 13 SEER cooling efficiency and 80% AFUE heating operation not only will you save energy and money but with R410a environmentally responsible refrigerant, you'll be helping the environment as well. Designed and built for ease of installation and with serviceability in mind.

Built To Last

To ensure faultless performance in the home, each unit is fully charged and run tested for leaks at the factory. Every component is designed for worry-free operation – from the heat exchanger and ignition control board to the heavy-duty compressor. The insulated cabinet offers vital components protection from the elements as well as aiding in quiet operation.
